RICHMOND CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY MORNING DECEMBER 3, 1915. NUMBER 260

PUT OVER LIQUOR ACTION

After two hours of discussion last evening the city council put over until next Wednesday evening the final decision on the proposed new liquor ordinance. The discussion continued between Rev. P. E. Peterson on one side and H. N. Richardson of San Francisco who is said to be connected with the Hotaling company, a wholesale liquor firm Edward McDuff, west side hotel and liquor dealer protested against the plan advocated by P. M. Dean and Gus Green by which the $300 year additional raise in the license would be put into a fund to be used to purchase saloons which desire to go out of business.

The council will likely refuse to consider the retirement feature of the ordinance. McDuff grilled Richardson without reserve claiming that Richardson is "an outsider and not the representative of the liquor men of the city." Rev. Peterson suggested several changes to the council. He and attorney Lee D. Windrem who appeared for the saloon men got together on several points, prominent among them being that instead of five out of the nine residents nearest the proposed saloon signing the petition for a license that notice stating that application is to be made to the council for a license shall be posted for ten days in front of the location to be occupied.

Another provision that will likely be included is to prevent chairs being used in the main bar room of the saloons. The new law will not go into effect until June 30th neyt on the raise in license or in its other drastic features.

RAISE HOGS DE LUXE ON SHEEP ISLE

Hog raising de luxe is the plan of H. L. Hoeffler and J. S. Button of San Francisco. Hoeffler and Button have leased Sheep's Island off the local waterfront and will in a few days place thirty five porkers on the island, which has an area of fiftyporkers on the island, which has an area of fifty acres.

Cement pens and other attractions will be made for the convenience of the star boarders at the place. The pens will be flushed twice a day. The menue for the porkers will include choice swill from this city and other cities about the bay. Sutton and Hoeffler plan to place 100 hogs on the island. They have the sanction of the state board of health.

Should the "farm" prove a nuisance, Dr. Charles R. Blake, docal health commissioner will take steps to have it removed, the island being within the city limits.

Hoeffler and Button have agreed to take this chance, but are confident that the place will not prove obnoxious to local residents.

TWO INJURED BY MOVING SAWS

Two men sufered lacerations of the hands yesterday. Andrew Brusitori, employed at the Metropolitan Match factory at Stege and Joe Scrane, employed at the Western Pipe and Steel company were the victims.

Brusitori had his hand caught in a revolving saw. The thumb was cut the entire length of the member, through to the bone. Amputation will not be necessary.

Scrane also had his hand caught in a revolving saw.

Both were treated at the Abbott Emergency hospital.

WOULD DIM CAR LIGHTS

The San Francisco-Oakland Terminal railway company was requested to place "dimmers" on the headlights of the cars in accordance with the vehicle law governing automobiles, which goes into effect January 1, 1916. Fire Chief Lemoin brought the matter to the council's attention last night, and a conference between City Attorney Hall, Lemoin, Charles Donnelly, of the traction company and fire chiefs of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and Emeryville will soon be held.

CLERKS PLAN FOR ANNUAL SESSION OF STATE BODY

With a large attendance of members present, officers were last night elected by the local Retail Clerk's Union at a meeting at Polytechnic hall. Plans for the annual convention of the Federation of Retail Clerks of California to be held in this city January 9th of next year were made.

Mayor E. J. Garrard will be invited to be one of the speakers. Others who will be invited to speak are T. J. Vitaich, vice pesident of District No. 1 of the Fedaration of Labor President of the Labor Council: president of the Building Trades council: Attorney Henry Wildgrub, Fred Heckman and others.

SIDELIGHTS ON WORLD WAR IN COMMUNICATION RECEIVED IN THIS CITY

The "war stamp" is the latest innovation in Austria as the result of the present European war. Andrew Scurich, employed at the Imperial Restaurant of this city, yesterday received a postal card from his brother, Louis Scurich, a wireless officer operator with the Austrian army on the Serbian border near Bosania, upon which one of the new war stamps was placed.

The stamp is similar slightly larger than the United States stamp. The photograph of a huge cannon, such as is used by only the Teutonic allies is engraved on the stamp, which is printed in red ink on a white back ground.

That the censors are not as strict at present as at the commencement of the war is indicated by the fact that the postal card while bearing the official stamp of the censor was not mutilated in any way.

According to the writer, meat is scarce among the civilian population of the Austrials, all of the available supply being sent to the men in the trenches. However of vegetables and other food products, there is a bountiful supply.

Scurich states that the Austrians have not yet called upon the great majority of reserves. The "20 year old division" of reserves has not yet entered the war, except voluntarily.

Acording to Scurich, the Austrian people are very optimistic and expect to win, although they do not expect the war to end for some time.

The wireless, the writer says, is becoming one of the most popular means of communication. The fact that telephone wires are easily disconnected, makes the wireless an invaluable asset to leaders of the belligerents.

From Scurich's station the movements of troops for several hundred miles aong the frontier are directed.

HAS INJURIES TREATED

F. B. Holland, 301 Bissell avenue was treated at the Abbott emergency hospital yesterday for abrasions of the face and head sustained during a fistic exhibition with Edward Hubbard.

KEEP JITNEY OFF AVENUE SUGGESTED

Jitney busses will no longer operate along Macdonald avenue, if suggestions made to the city council last night are put into effect. According to statements made at the meeting jitney busses are not allowed to operate parallel with street car lines in Stockton and in Berkeley.

City Attorney D. J. Hall was instructed to gather information from these two cities with the idea of creating an ordinance in this city to that effect.

It was also claimed that the jitney operators, have a "sliding scale" of prices. For a trip from Sixth street and Macdonald avenue to the Standard Oil refinery but five cents is charged, it was said, while for a trip from Sixth street and Macdonald avenue to the city hall a charge of 25 cents was charged.

The distance to the city hall is less than that to the west side section.

Under these conditions, it was declared that the fraction people may raise their rates. The fourteen jitneys in operation pay an annual license to the city of $140.

CLUB BAZAAR WILL CLOSE WITH DANCE THIS EVENING

The two day bazaar of Richmond club will close tonight with a dance in the clubhouse. The bazaar is proving a great success. Scores visited the clubhouse yesterday and purchased the various articles on sale at the several booths.

Mrs. C. S. Gibson is chairman of committee in charge. Music for the dance tonight will be furnished by the Richmond Concert Band.

The dance this evening will be in the nature of a "jitney dance". Those who care to dance will be charged a nickle a dance.

One of the big features of the bazaar is the doll display. Seldom has there been such a complete and a varied assortment of dolls exhibited in the city and the club women expect to dispose of all of them today.

PITTSBURG MAN ACQUITTED

Frank Bruno, who shot and killed Domnic Giambono, on Sunday, the 21st of November at Pittsburg was exonerated of all blame by a coroner's jury which heard all the evidence last evening. The jury found that Bruno was protesting himself from the attack of Giambono, when he fired the shots which ended the life of Giambono.

Bruno claims and his wife substantiates his story that Giambono came to his home in a fighting mood and demanded that Bruno quit bothering him for some money he, Giambono had borrowed.

The men had words and Giambono drew his revolver and fired three shots which went wild. Bruno then took his revolver and shot the man through the abdomen.

Twilight lodge of Odd Fellows at a meeting held last evening at Fraternal hall elected officers. The officers are Noble Grand, Ben Fulton: vice grand, Charles Gilmore: recording secretary, George Conley: financial secretary, R. G. Erskine: treasurer, Harry Haines and trustees, Max Henry and E. M. Betts.

REMAINS ARE SENT TO BAKERSFIELD FOR BURIAL

Mrs. N. Mueller, who died Wednesday evening, was the wife of Alexander Mueller, and mother of Harry W., and Frank Mueller and Mrs. C. Hull. The remains were shipped to Bakersfield by the Bert Curry Undertaking Parlors last night, where interment will be made.

Hull is well known in this city, and is an employe with the Santa Fe railroad company.

TO BUY GIFTS EARLY MEANS TO BUY WELL.

There's no better way to show one's good sense as well as one's Christmas spirit than to do one's shopping early.

The early shopper is not jostled nor crowded in making selections, and has a far wider range of choice than the late comer to the counters.

Early shopping is both pleasant and profitable, while as Christmas draws near there is a frantic scramble every day, to find what one wants and to know that a much better choice could have been made earlier.

These are not wholly selfish considerations, for they relate to the satisfaction of the recipient no less than to that of the buyer.

But the thought that should have most weight with buyers is that of easing the labors of the salespeople as much as possible. During the holiday season, and especially before Christmas, they are overworked, and usually worn out when at night the closing hour comes.

But most of that exhaustion could be averted if shoppers would be considerate as well as wise enough to make their purchases as soon as possible—especially before Christmas week arrives.

To buy early means to buy to the best advantage and with the least trouble, discomfort and annoyance.

There is nothing to gain by delay and much to lose.

DIAGONOSE YOURSELF

There is a peculiar gem which men quickly discover in others but seldom in themselves.

Its name is Fault.

He is lifeless who is faultless, says an old proverb, meaning the only perfect men are dead men.

There are many kinds of faults—germs. Chief among them are cruelty, constant nagging, fault-finding and selfishness.

These make disagreeable men and disagreeable men make a disagreeable world.

Life is what you make it. YOU MAKE IT AS YOU THINK IT.

To man with a pain the earth is a circus—to the dismal man who lacks cheer the earth is a "sea of troubles."

He who meets others with a growl in youth will be greeted with growls in old age.

The man who selfishly refuses aid to the needy should not look for aid when in need.

The first symptom of Fault infection is to be unaware of its presence.

Cheerfulness, ambition, sincerity and brotherly feelings are the best medicines—and surest cures.

Lucky the man who knows his Faults—happy the man who labors against them.

Be your own physician—diagnose yourself—EVERY DAY—and root out your Faults. Faults are animals—do not rest until you kill them.

WHAT KIND DO YOU WANT?

H. D. Cross, Pacific Coast representative of the Boy Scouts, puts Jack London's and Rudyard Kiplings' stirring tales in a class with Nick Carter's dime thrillers and [illegible] books of these and similar "action-writers" should be kept out of boys' libraries.

Depends upon the brand of boys you are figuring on turning out.

We admit the potency of good literature on the young mind, but, as far as we are concerned we would not give a bank note for a boy who didn't prefer the "Sea Wolf" or Barrack Room Ballads, or even "Nick Carter," to some of Shakespear's rather [illegible] classics.

Admitting, as you plain, that such literature "incites in boys a love of adventure and often prompts them to run away from home," isn't that same love of adventure a heritage from the American boys' Indian-fighting forbears? And isn't it true that when this spirit moves boys so that they are impelled to beard [illegible] in its native lair, they generally turn out real men, and home-lovin gones at that?

And anyhow, we never saw an All man who was brought up on either a physical or mental diet of milk-and-water.

JUNKETING IN THE NAME OF PEACE

Teh latest of Mr. Henry Ford's vagaries is the most remarkable of all. Announcing a peace mission to Europe he charters a steamship and invites as his companions on this extraordinary errand a number of more or less conspicious people, who presumably share his views that it is advisable to get all combatants out of the trenches by Christmas. If Mr. Ford were not a high-salaried manufacturer and one of the shrewdest advertisers in the world we suspect that the latest posturing as a peace angel was a symptom of insanity.

Leaving the United States, as it must without a vestige of official sanction, this remarkable expedition will arouse the wonder of belligerent Europe. Put the "quarrels are not settled by private intervention or mediation." Mr. Ford hopes his missionaries will obtain no access to governing authorities to whom they are not officially accredited. Their futile parading in capitals where they are not desired, and where they are not invited, will merely arouse curiosity as to the mental processes that led them to expect satisfactory results from such a crack-brained conception, with possibly unflattering reflections upon the common sense of Americans in general. The making of peace will of necessity be a profoundly solemn function, upon which personally conducted junkets can have no effect.

We are, however, promised one compensation for the ridicule Mr. Ford's undertaking will surely provoke. Among the peace missionaries we note the name of Mr. William J. Bryan. If Mr. Ford shall succeed in removing him from this country for any considerable period, unloading him upon Europe where the addition of one more burden would hardly be perceptible, we shall have some cause to be grateful.—Brooklyn Eagle.

TO THE LIGHTS WITHIN

Did you ever stand out in the cold on a frosty, windy night, with your fingers numb and stiff, and the snow drifted up above your shoe tops? Did you ever fumble for the keyhole under such conditions, realizing that inside was light and comfort and cheer if only you could find that little slot to admit you? Again you fumble and feel, and at last, when thoroughly out of patience, find the elusive crack admitting you to the awaiting lights.

For the man who knows, such an experience is not necessary: because the man who knows has a house thoroughly equipped with the latest possibilities of electric lighting—light in any quantity always on hand, wherever wanted, at whatever time of day or night.

Sunk in the jamb of the door, just beside the handle is a small push button. It makes no difference if the hads are numb, or if he has or thick and heavy gloves, a touch will light the lamp which shows him the keyhole.

And when he enters—the man who knows—there are ready the thousand and one conveniences to be had for the asking.

The Modern Gas Range a Money Saver

The double oven of the up-to-date Cabinet Gas Range is a money saving feature.

ONE set of burners heats both ovens. One heat serves a double purpose—at a single cost.

ONCE the flame is set, it stays so.

GAS HEAT is instanteous.

THE little simmering burner saves gas and produces better results.

THERE are many improvements in the Modern Gas Range.
